

Sayings and Observations by Mr. Rebel

Why are there so many Descriptive Phrases that use Racial Epithets ?

Here's a Short List of Common Sayings - and I can't imagine where any other word would fit. Try it yourself - substitute the word "black" - and then you decide if the common saying then makes any sense - -

1. “..Damn, John, you had better tighten up on that pipe hanger, that steam line is jumping up and down like a dancing nigger..”

3. “..Alright, get the God damned electricians up here, and after we take the mains offline, isolate the switch gear and clean all that nigger-hair off of those arc-damaged high-tension contacts..”
4. “I guess Barney Fife is on the job, did you see the size of that nigger-knocker that the gate guard was wearing on his duty belt”?
5. “Alright boys and girls, lock the doors, we are about to drive through nigger-town”

Ballot Theft - -

If you think the cheating was only in 6 or 7 states during the 2020 Presidential Election, then consider this: According to Judicial Watch, 353 Counties in 29 different states had voter registration exceeding 100-percent. This was not an election, it was a scam, it was ballot theft on a massive scale, which was disguised as an election.

Or, how about this - - Imagine, if you will, either a small county or a large precinct, where approximately 200,000 out of 210,000 adults registered to vote, and the computers made it look as if all 200,000 voted for Joe Biden. Nothing to see here, right?

Clever (and True) Sayings - -

"..I am unreformed, unforgiven, and unreconstructed.." (attributed to an unknown Confederate soldier, post-1865)

David Lane's 14-Words - - "We must secure the existence of our people and a future for white children"

"Fear of sub-human tribes (that exhibit primitive and aggressive behavior) occurs naturally among advanced races. This fearful reaction is natural, and isn't so much racism, as it is realism, and the need to protect one's own tribe."
